

CANADIAN INTERNATIONAL COUNCIL
CONSEIL INTERNATIONAL DU CANADA

The Canadian International Council Toronto Branch

invites you to:

A brown bag lunch discussion

President Obama, Israel, the Palestinians:
Where to go from here and who will be going there?

with:

Professor Asher Susser

Tel Aviv University and Brandeis University

Friday, 4 December, 2009

12:00-1:15pm

Room 208N

Munk Centre for International Studies

1 Devonshire Place, Toronto

The event is free but kindly register online:

www.canadianinternationalcouncil.org

BRING YOUR OWN LUNCH

Professor Asher Susser is a Senior Fellow at the Moshe Dayan Center for Middle Eastern Studies at Tel Aviv University, Visiting Senior Fellow, Brandeis University, and prominent expert on Arab-Israeli issues, Jordan, and the Palestinians. Dr. Susser is an internationally-known scholar, and one of Israel's foremost policy analysts. He is a deeply insightful observer of Israel's regional challenges and travels the world briefing other governments on behalf of the Ministry of Foreign Affairs in Jerusalem.

To find out more about the Canadian International Council, please visit:

www.canadianinternationalcouncil.org

To find out more about the Canadian International Council Toronto Branch, please visit:

www.cictoronto.ca